in a small hamlet called Ahmsen, located in Detmold, Lippener Landkreis, Nordrhein-Westfalen, Germany. This was in the Emsland region of northwestern Germany, not far from Meppen. In the 1800's, this area was part of Hanover. Ahmsen was described by family members as a "farming community in northern Germany--old attractive homes and farm buildings (all brick), a quiet and very rural setting." William's baptismal records were recorded in the church register of St. Clement's Church in Holte-Lastrup, Germany. William, his parents and 6 older siblings arrived in the United States at the port of New Orleans on 17 Nov 1856 on board the ship Ocean. He was almost 9-years-old when they made their way to America. The family lived briefly in St. Louis, Missouri before moving near Brussels in Calhoun County, Illinois. William married Anna "Ann" Arnold on 28 Nov 1871 in Brussels. He became a United States citizen on 08 Aug 1873. William was a farmer, and the Pohlman's were the parents of 10 children. They lived in southern Calhoun County for all of their married life until William became ill late in life. They then moved to Grafton, Jersey County, Illinois for him to be able to obtain medical treatment." FindAGrave
